

10 Questions Parents Should Ask Their Children Every Year

1. Do you feel that we are getting along well together?
2. What are some things you think we could do to improve our relationship?
3. Do you believe I really care about who you are as an individual. . .or just how you behave? Do you think I am concerned most about you, or how you make me appear to others?
4. Have I ever made a promise to you that I didn't keep?
5. Do you feel that I respect you? Do you respect me?
6. Is there something you would enjoy doing together with me? What would keep us from doing this?
7. Is there some secret you are keeping from me out of fear that it might cause me to love you less?
8. What can I do to show you that I want to be more like Christ?
9. Is there something I do that annoys you or embarrasses you?
10. Are you confident that I love you and that I thank God for the privilege of being your parent?

Did I omit any question you wish I would ask?
